Two Georgia-based agencies, DM Insurance and The Nolan Group Insurance Solutions, have joined InsuranceHub, an affiliate of Leavitt Group. The merger of these two local agencies bolsters InsuranceHub's presence as a leading independent agency and demonstrates its successful operation, despite the current challenging market.

While consumers are navigating through hard market conditions, characterized by higher premiums and stricter underwriting standards, InsuranceHub continues to stand out by providing direct access to a diverse range of insurance products and personalized service. Unlike captive, impersonal firms, they offer a direct phone line staffed with real people, ensuring clients have access to the right coverage and a variety of options.

“We are thrilled to welcome DM Insurance and The Nolan Group Insurance Solutions to the InsuranceHub family,” said InsuranceHub president Jim Lloyd. “Their commitment to excellent service and deep community roots in Georgia perfectly align with our values. Together, we’re excited to expand our capabilities and continue delivering exceptional solutions to our clients.”

DM Insurance is an independent agency serving individuals, families, and businesses in Roswell, Georgia, since 2004. They bring their Roswell office location and 18 employees.

“Joining InsuranceHub marks a significant milestone for our agency,” said DM Insurance principal and founder Ray Risner. “Since 2004, we’ve dedicated ourselves to serving the Roswell community and the state of Georgia. We’re excited to bring our local expertise and enthusiastic team to their network.”

The Nolan Group Insurance Solutions has offered personal and commercial insurance services to clients since 1993. The agency owner, Walker Nolan, will remain at the agency as an agent and brings his team of 10 along with their office locations in Cumming and Buford, Georgia.

“The Nolan Group Insurance Solutions is proud to be part of InsuranceHub, a move that represents a new chapter in our journey of providing top-tier insurance services,” said Nolan. “This collaboration with InsuranceHub enhances our ability to offer a wider range of products and services, all while staying true to our commitment to personal and commercial clients. We're looking forward to a successful future together."
