Insurance Services, a family-run agency providing health, Medicare, and life insurance, and an affiliate of AmeriLife Group, LLC (“AmeriLife”), announced today that it has acquired One Health Benefits (“OHB”), a full-service independent insurance agency specializing in individual, group and senior insurance solutions. Per the agreement, terms of the deal were not disclosed.

"We're excited to partner with One Health Benefits and its founder, Dena Schmid," said Chad Mikolajcik, principal of Insurance Services. "We've worked with Dena for many years and are continually impressed by her expertise and commitment to delivering exceptional service to her clients. Her passion and dedication align perfectly with our mission and AmeriLife's values, and we look forward to continuing to grow the company's footprint and product solution offerings."

Through this partnership, Insurance Services gains a vital presence in South Carolina, allowing the company to serve its growing client base and ensuring that customers receive personalized and timely support for their health and life insurance needs. This strategic location enables Insurance Services to maintain OHB's localized approach, strengthening the company's market position and reinforcing its commitment to providing comprehensive and accessible health benefits to the residents of South Carolina.

"Joining Insurance Services and AmeriLife's affiliate partnership program is a significant milestone for One Health Benefits," said Dena. "We look forward to the growth opportunities this acquisition presents and are eager to contribute our expertise to the Insurance Services team."

As an affiliate partner of AmeriLife's Health Distribution platform, OHB will access best-in-class platforms, tools, industry expertise, and an expansive product portfolio to move quickly into new markets, accelerate production, and drive the firm's growth.

"This partnership is another example of AmeriLife's Health Distribution network continued growth," said Scotty Elliott, Chief Distribution Officer for AmeriLife Health. "With each strategic partnership, we enhance our ability to deliver innovative and comprehensive health and life insurance solutions, meeting consumer needs with unparalleled service and expertise."
