

Houchens Insurance Group Acquires Two Agencies

By Natalie Crawford

October 5, 2023

Houchens Insurance Group has announced the acquisition of two companies, Henneberger and Flynn, a property and casualty group based in Paducah, Kentucky, and LS Benefits Group, an employee benefits group based in Dayton, Ohio. The acquisition will come into effect from October 1, 2023.

The acquisition of Henneberger and Flynn and LS Benefits Group will further strengthen Houchens Insurance Group's position in the market and expand their footprint in the US.

Andy Barker, CEO of Houchens Insurance Group on the acquisitions, "We are incredibly excited to have found these two organizations to join the HIG team and all of our employee-owners. We take great strides to build and protect the culture at HIG and these two agencies could not be a better fit to our ownership mentality!"

Houchens Insurance Group has a long-standing reputation for providing excellent insurance services to clients across the country. With the addition of Henneberger and Flynn and LS Benefits Group, they are well-positioned to continue to deliver on this promise and meet the evolving needs of their clients.