

Expands Presence in Pennsylvania with Acquisition of Myers Benner

Myers, Benner Partnership Marks KAP's 23rd Platform Partner

Harrisburg, PA (October 16, 2024) – Keystone Agency Partners (KAP), a rapidly growing insurance brokerage firm, is pleased to announce the acquisition of Myers, Benner Corporation, a leading insurance agency based in Allentown, Pennsylvania. This strategic acquisition marks KAP's 23rd platform partner, further solidifying its position as a leading insurance brokerage firm in the country.

“We are thrilled to welcome Myers, Benner to the KAP family,” said Patrick Kinney, CEO of Keystone Agency Partners. “Their commitment to exceptional customer service and expertise in the industry aligns perfectly with our values and vision. This acquisition not only expands our presence in Pennsylvania but also fuels our growth as we look to deliver more innovation and resources to our partners in the future.”

Myers, Benner Corporation, founded in 1929, has established itself as a trusted insurance partner in the Mid-Atlantic Region, providing a range of insurance solutions to individuals and businesses. The agency has developed a particular specialty in serving the distinct needs of towing operations, garages, truck dealerships and school districts providing tailored insurance products and expert guidance to these niche markets. The agency's President, Peter Dooley, will continue to lead the team, ensuring a seamless transition for clients and employees.

“We are excited to join forces with Keystone Agency Partners, an organization that shares our passion for delivering exceptional insurance solutions and customer service,” said Peter Dooley, President of Myers, Benner. “This partnership will enable us to leverage KAP's resources and expertise, further enhancing our capabilities and offerings to our valued clients in industries where we have built a strong reputation for our knowledge and service.”

The acquisition of Myers, Benner is a strategic move for KAP, expanding its footprint in the Mid-Atlantic region and increasing its presence in the Pennsylvania market. This partnership will provide Myers, Benner with access to KAP's extensive network, technology, and resources, enabling the agency to continue growing and providing innovative insurance solutions to its clients.
