The acquisition provides greater choice and flexibility, and best-in-class products and services to pawn businesses nationwide

NEENAH, Wis. (July 23, 2024) – Jewelers Mutual® Group, the insurance and business solutions provider dedicated to the jewelry industry since 1913, recently announced its acquisition of the trusted pawnbroker insurance provider, Union Life & Casualty Insurance Agency (UL&C). JM Insurance Agency Partners, Inc., a Jewelers Mutual Group company, will join forces with UL&C, expanding the Group’s expertise, helping strengthen both the pawn market and the insurance industry, and helping meet customers’ needs for best-in-class pawnbroker coverage.

“This strategic acquisition empowers us to leverage our combined expertise and expand our suite of innovative insurance solutions to further strengthen our market position in the pawn industry,” said Mike Alexander, Chief Operating Officer at Jewelers Mutual. “Together, we will accelerate our growth and continue to deliver incredible value to our customers.”

JM Insurance Agency Partners connects the top agents throughout the U.S. and Canada with carriers and their collective products, services and risk management solutions from around the globe. The addition of UL&C provides more choice and greater flexibility to more customers in more markets with personalized insurance options.

“Our core values and commitment to customer satisfaction remains. I believe this acquisition will allow us to create a more powerful force in the pawn industry, ultimately leading to even better products and experiences for our current and future customers,” said Jon Walker, President and Chief Executive Officer at UL&C.
