Charles Ludewig Retires, Ludewig Insurance Joins Fahey-Leavitt

Ludewig Insurance recently announced that after many years of serving insurance clients, Charles Ludewig has decided to retire. With Ludewig’s retirement, the agency is pleased to share it has joined Fahey-Leavitt Insurance, a Leavitt Group affiliate. This strategic partnership will enhance the company’s product and service capabilities, reaffirming its commitment to clients.

“I’m looking forward to this next chapter and plan to enjoy more time golfing and fishing and spending time with my family and grandchildren,” said Ludewig. “We went into this new partnership with the Faheys after thoughtful consideration. Mike Fahey was a mentor to me in my early Nationwide years, and I’m confident their team will take great care of our clients.”

Ludewig’s New Martinsville office will remain open, providing Fahey-Leavitt with a stronger presence in the region. Kim Howell will continue to serve clients at that location.

“We’re excited for Kim to join our team and to offer stronger insurance company relationships, risk management services, and service team capabilities to Ludewig’s customers,” said Tom Fahey, co-owner of Fahey-Leavitt Insurance.
