

RCM&D – A Unison Risk Advisors Company Acquires MillenGroup

Aug 29, 2024

The firm continues to grow as it expands in Virginia.

BALTIMORE, MD – August 28, 2024 – RCM&D, one of the nation’s largest independent risk management, insurance and employee benefits firms and a founding partner of Unison Risk Advisors, has announced the acquisition of MillenGroup, a Virginia-based benefits advisory firm founded in 2001.

The deal officially closed on August 1, 2024. MillenGroup will continue to serve their clients offering the expanded resources of RCM&D including property & casualty, retirement plan services, life insurance, RCM&D’s Self-Insured Services Company (SISCO) and more.

“Since Unison Risk Advisors was established in December 2020, our goal has been to preserve and grow the independent advisory channel of the insurance distribution business” said Bob Cawley, Chief Executive Officer, RCM&D and President, Unison Risk Advisors. “We welcome Laura Millen, John Millen and their talented team at MillenGroup as we leverage each other’s strengths to serve our clients with their best interest in mind.”

“We are excited to join RCM&D and are eager to introduce our clients to the firm’s holistic suite of offerings,” shared Laura Millen, Founder, Sr Managing Partner, MillenGroup.

Laura and John Millen, Co-Founder, Managing Partner at MillenGroup, will be part of RCM&D’s Employee Benefits leadership team in Richmond and will continue to deliver best in class solutions to clients.

“We are thrilled to welcome several new colleagues to RCM&D and we are beyond excited to watch this talented group expand our Employee Benefits presence in the Richmond and greater Virginia market,” said Matt Kahn, Esq., CIC, ACI, President, RCM&D.

RCM&D plans to continue to grow in the mid-Atlantic region. “We look forward to meeting and collaborating with other independent brokerage firms who are committed to maintaining their independence and dedicated to their clients and communities,” said Mark Socoloski, Corporate Development, RCM&D.
